RE: Meeting Agenda for July 14, 2020: 12:00 noon,
Grand Hotel 1505 North Broadway

1. Approval of Minutes – February 26, 2020

A copy of the minutes of the February 26, 2020 Liaison Committee meeting are attached.

2. 9-1-1 Proposed Budget

The County requested a discussion on the 9-1-1 budget for 2021.

3. November Election

The Committee wants to confirm we are prepared for the November Election whether it be in-person or mail-in ballots.

4. Nuisance Weeds

Each summer there are numerous complaints regarding nuisance weeds. The City wants to ensure the County Weed Board has the resources to address the issues.

5. New High School

The Committee wants to discuss what resources might be needed for the new High School.

6. Back to School

The Committee wants to discuss the effects of COVID-19 on the reopening of schools in the fall.

7. City/County Concurrence on Property Tax Designations

At the July 6th City Council meeting, an abatement request for 2018-2019 property taxes was discussed. The applicant brought up an issue and requested clarification regarding a discrepancy between the City and the County classifications.

8. Census Update

The Census deadline has been extended due to COVID-19. A revised plan has been developed to count as many residents as possible.
